BODY SCULPT

SYNERGY THAT OFFERS VISIBLE RESULTS

● SHOCK WAVE

They are pression movements generated by acoustic waves with a low frequency, they travel through body fluids and interact exclusively on the adipocytes, remodeling fatty deposits and imperfections due to cellulite

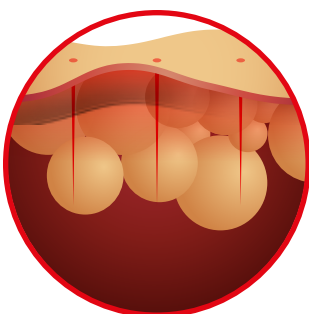

● VACUUM

Act on the tissue exactly like endodermal massage, simultaneously the action of shock wave we will have a deep suction effect. This combination generates a result of general remodeling

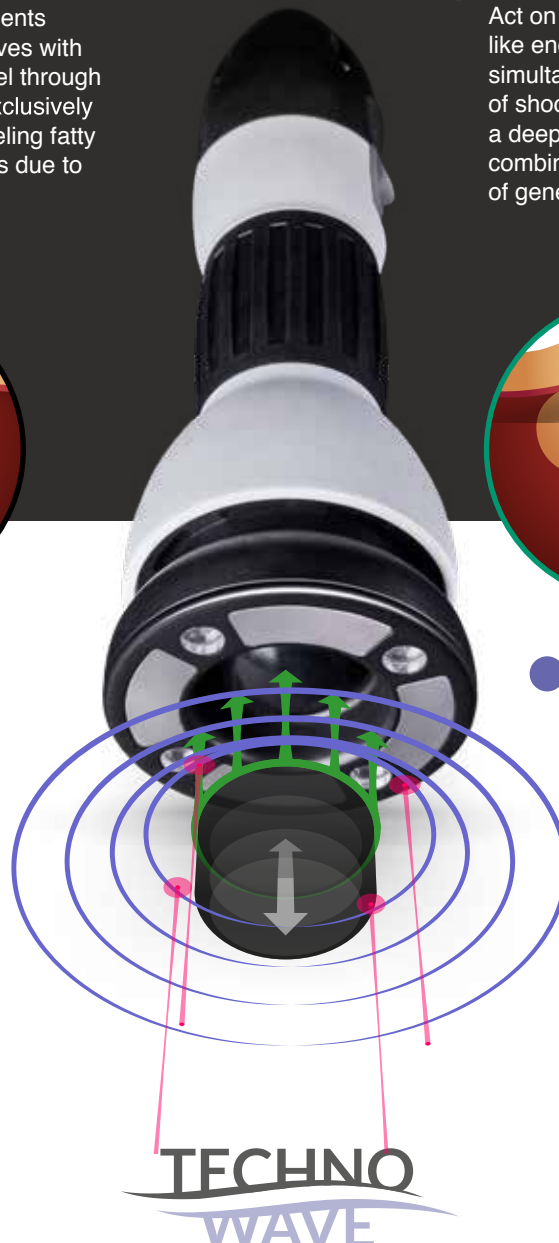

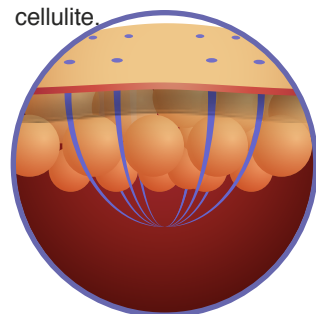

● LLLT

(Low Level Laser Treatment) Its own effects are the ones that generate a photo stimulation, they act on tone up and remodeling, thanks to this handpiece they will amplify the result onto the imperfection.

● MULTIPOLAR RF

Based on the transformation of energy into heat, increases the local metabolism, fastens the blood flow in the micro circulation and expels the liquid stagnation in the capillaries. The consequence is the relaunch of the metabolism of the fatty deposits and imperfection of cellulite.

1 OPENING MOVEMENT

In this image you can see the movement that we are going to do in any area of the body with this synergy handpiece, we move horizontally focusing the handpiece on that areas were the imperfection is more noticeable. We have to be particularly careful to move the handpiece over every area to be treated with this kind of gesture.

TONE & REMODELING

2 CLOSING MOVEMENT

In this image we can see how it is the movement called closing, where, after sculpting the body, we proceed with the tonification and remodeling of the specific area with a longitudinal movement. Also this part has to be applied to all the areas to obtain the total remodeling and toning effect, stimulating the waist substances to be eliminated.

TECHNO WAVE

This extraordinary multifunctional handpiece keeps different technologies inside. It is a very sophisticated handpiece, therefore you have to take care and it will allow you to reach never seen before results on your clients that have little imperfections.

In this pictures you can see how you can work on some areas, but keep attention, we work also on the whole body. The movement has to be exactly like the pictures, easy and efficacy, we can see the body remodeling and adapt under the action of Techno Wave.

Extraordinary synergy that allows to work in areas such as leg in its entirety till the ankle. We can work the abdomen side to feel distended and relax. For extra relax we can also treat shoulders.

The goal that we pose with this kind of device is to fight the cellulite and adiposity imperfection that obsess a lot of people. Like all Overline Technologies, also the Body Sculpt respects the regulations

TOUCH SCREEN 10" LCD DISPLAY

The 10" display becomes immediately one of the main tools to implement the job of the professional. The easy to use formula makes it unique. With a few gesture, the operator is able to make a 360° consultation of the client personal condition

● HANDPIECE (TechnoWave)

Thanks to the TechnoWave handpiece Overline was able to conjugate more treatments in a single movement. The handpiece is defined Technical because, gifted with four specific actions that they develop in unison, they are able to reach concrete and visible result from the first treatment
